THE BANKS OF CHICKASAW.

Pleasant Echoes from the Babbling Brook.
Due West, S. C., Aug. 31, 1896.
On account of the indisposition of Rev. O. Y. Bonner, Rev. W. M. Grier supplied his pulpit Sabbath morning.
As usual, our ministers were all absent Sabbath day, serving different congregations. Messrs. McMillan & Wilson are on the ground with their oriel machine. They will commence work this week on the brick for the dormitory.
Contractor Orders of Charlotte, has arrived and will commence work immediately upon Brekin's Dormitory.
Mr. David Pressley, has returned from Gastonia, N. C.
Mr. P. H. Harper died suddenly Thursday morning. Although in feeble health for a long time, he was able to attend to his affairs. His death was unexpected. He was a kind father and affectionate husband.
Mr. James Tribble is generally over-hauling the Hood place, and it is now one of the prettiest places in town. Mr. F. M. Bell is doing the wood work, and John Crawford the painting.
The young folks of Due West and Donalds had an enjoyable picnic Friday at Rich's pasture.
Miss Zula Brock has gone to Belton where she will teach the next year.
Miss Docia Brock, has returned from Zarlina.
Mr. J. W. Pratt is visiting in Greenville.
Mr. J. R. Ellis will open business at Haddon's old stand.
Rudolph McDavid is in Lowndesville taking telegraphy.
Mrs. J. A. Brown and family, have returned from a pleasant visit to Virginia.
VISITORS.
Miss Nola Mattison, Honea Path.
Miss Marion Corrie, Abbeville.
Miss Lizzie Nance, Abbeville.
Miss Branyon, Zarlina.
Miss Elouise Seale, Woodruff.
Mrs. John Wilson, Lowndesville.
Miss Emma Black, Abbeville.
Mr. C. E. Harper, Honea Path.
Mr. Mattison, Donalds.
Mr. Dodson, Donalds.
The Colleges open last Wednesday in September.
Rev. Boyce Grier and family are expected this week.
Mr. J. A. Nance, lost his youngest child Sabbath evening.
We are looking for students from all parts of the United States next year, and have already two young ladies from Arizona that will attend.
Miss Sallie Widenman has gone to Blackstock, where she will engage in teaching the present year.
Mr. J. G. Pressley leaves Tuesday for Leland, Georgia, to resume teaching. He goes by private conveyance, and Mr. W. P. Lindsay will accompany him as far as August.
Miss Ellen Edwards will teach in Lancaster the following year, and has taken her departure.
Messrs. A. S. Kennedy and J. L. Pressley took a trip to Mount Carmel last week.
Euphemian Hall is about completed, and puts forth a beautiful appearance.
Swamp root can be had at Speed's.

ITEMS FROM NINETY-SIX.

The Election—Earle and Evans—Political Pot.
Ninety-Six, S. C., Aug. 31, 1896.
Well, the first primary is over and we congratulate those who were successful. Election day here was very quiet. Everybody seemed to vote as they pleased, and the old system of "log rolling" was not resorted to. The anti-Evans vote was divided between Earle and Duncan. Of course the Duncan vote will go to Earle next time. We do not believe Evans will hold his vote of last Tuesday, as we have heard several say that they would vote for Earle next time.
As to the vote for Clerk we do not look for many changes. For Supervisor Capt. Lyon will lead, and as for the House Mr. Graydon and Mr. Magill both have friends here.
Cotton is coming in slowly. There seems to be a disposition on the part of the planters to hold.
Dr. and Mrs. Holland have gone over to spend several days at Lutha Springs.
Miss Mabel Thurman, who has been spending sometime here, has returned to her home in Columbia.
The Ninety-Six High School will open next Monday, the 6th inst.
Mrs. Johnson has purchased Mr. Kinnard's house on East Main Street and moved in it.
The Rev. J. C. Stoll is carrying on a meeting at Salem. The attendance is good.
Mr. J. T. Langston and family have returned. He has taken the cottage of Mr. Fouché on North Cambridge Street, and will buy cotton here this season.
We thank Mr. J. A. Moore for a basket of nice tomatoes and sweet potatoes. They were quite acceptable and very much enjoyed.
Miss Maude Brabham, from Edgefield, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. Wilson, has returned to her home.
The Rev. Mr. Justus delivered the address before the union of the Sunday Schools yesterday in the Methodist church. The address was very interesting and appropriate. The singing was excellent.
This is molasses time, and our farmers are making quantities of it.
Miss Minnie Thurman, a pretty young lady from Greenwood, is spending awhile with her cousin, Mrs. E. N. DeVore.
M. S. G., your most excellent correspondent from Greenwood, called on us on Friday. He heard we were shot, and of course he being a tomstone man as well as a knight of the quill, had an eye to business. We certainly enjoyed his visit. But a tomstone is about the last thing we all need. East End.
